Eco-Friendly Soy & Coconut Wax Scented Candles

iFancyCandles began with a simple passion: to create eco-friendly, beautifully scented candles that bring light and warmth into every home.

We are a Cape Town-based brand dedicated to quality, clean ingredients, and creating meaningful moments.

Each candle is hand-poured in small batches using a soy-coconut wax blend, premium fragrance oils, and recyclable packaging.

Whether you're curating a retail shelf, building a gift box, or setting a tranquil mood in your store, our candles are made to be noticed, and remembered.
